SUBJECT: Appointment of Applicants for Openings on the City's Community Police Oversight Board

On February 8th, the City Council interviewed applicants who were interested in being appointed or reappointed to fill vacancies on the City's Community Police Oversight Board. At the Council meeting on February 22nd, the Mayor and City Council will nominate and confirm the appointments. The Mayor will make the appointments to the City's Community Police Oversight Board with the approval of the City Council.

The Community Police Oversight Board ("CPOB") has six Board Member seats open for appointment or reappointment. The openings are for the following seats:

- Police Beat 1 representative;
- Police Beat 2 representative;
- Police Beat 3 representative;
- Police Beat 4 representative;
- La Mesa Faith Based Community representative; and
- Advocate for people experiencing homelessness, substance abuse, mental health or other social issues.

The applications from the citizens who wish to be considered for appointment or reappointment to the CPOB are on file in the office of the City Clerk. Attached is a matrix outlining the categories each applicant is eligible to fill.

Staff recommends the Mayor appoint members to fill the openings on the City's Community Police Oversight Board, with the approval of the Council, and adopt the attached resolution confirming the appointments.
